Be part of the music—our 39th concert season is here!

The Detroit Concert Choir is Detroit's premier vocal ensemble, celebrated for exceptional programming and distinctive performances. This season, we invite you to experience The Mosaic of Us — a vibrant celebration of music in all its colors and textures. From the great masters to today's leading composers, our season offers timeless and enjoyable experiences for all.

The choir draws singers from more than 35 communities and performs in beautiful churches and renowned performing arts centers across metro Detroit. Founded in 1987 by Gordon Nelson, the ensemble has a rich musical heritage that includes national and international awards, including the title, Choir of the World. This season, the DCC is especially excited to be a Creative Partner with the new Schaap Center for the Performing Arts in Grosse Pointe Park and looks forward to joining the Oakland Symphony Orchestra and Chorus to present Haydn's Missa in tempore belli at Detroit's Orchestra Hall.

Come and enjoy a rich mosaic of musical brilliance and the power of great choral music!

"Full of surprises, diversity, and the most wonderful music.
Every concert is different, and I love them all!"

Our vision is to inspire and enrich lives through exceptional music

Welcome to the 2025-2026 Detroit Concert Choir season! I'm excited and proud to lead this amazing choir as we share our music, our joy, and our love with you. Thank you for joining us.

Artistic Director, Michael A. Mitchell
